

Why Buy Insurance?

We don't like to think about it, but unexpected accidents or illnesses can occur when you and your family are traveling, and finding and paying for adequate medical attention can be very difficult.

Healthcare costs around the world can be very expensive; hospitals can charge thousands of dollars per day. Without adequate insurance coverage, you could be responsible for medical costs that could have an immense impact on your personal finances. Why take this risk?

JF Insurance Agency Group Inc. specializes in hospital and medical insurance for visitors, travelers and international students.
